

Vessela Stoyanova Garvey, Attorney

Practice Areas Corporate and Securities
Government and Public Affairs
Finance, Restructuring and Bankruptcy

Admissions California

Foreign Languages Bulgarian
Russian
Serbo-Croatian
Spanish

Direct Phone 619.515.3205

Direct Fax 619.398.0110

Email vessela.garvey@procopio.com

Professional Summary

Vessela Garvey's practice focuses on finance and corporate matters. She has experience representing state and local agencies, investment banks, letter of credit and liquidity banks, private companies, and nonprofit corporations in a range of tax-exempt municipal financings and private placements. Ms. Garvey has drafted and reviewed purchase contracts, indentures, loan agreements, reimbursement agreements, standby bond purchase agreements, credit agreements, resolutions, and offering memoranda.

Ms. Garvey came to Procopio from the San Francisco office of Nixon Peabody, where she focused on public finance and project finance.

Representative Matters

- Assisted in the representation of the underwriters in multi-phase financing for the construction of a new power plant
- Assisted in the representation of the underwriter in financing for the construction and renovation of military housing for a U.S. Navy base
- Assisted in the representation of the underwriters and the letter of credit banks in an auction rate securities refunding for a county issuer
- Assisted in the representation of a city issuer in lease revenue and pension obligation bond financings

Education, Distinctions & Community Involvement

Ms. Garvey received a B.A. in International Relations from Stanford University in 2002. She received her law degree from the Santa Clara University School of Law in 2005. While at Santa Clara, Ms. Garvey served as Editor-in-Chief of the Santa Clara Law Review and The Advocate.