Professional Summary

Kathleen Pasulka-Brown has extensive international experience in the practice of patent, trademark and copyright law. Her practice encompasses U.S. and foreign trademark opposition and cancellation proceedings and infringement matters, and patent, trademark and copyright litigation. She has in-depth expertise in a broad range of sectors including financial services, food and beverages, consumer products, transportation systems, fitness equipment, technology and biotech.

Ms. Pasulka-Brown provides strategic product portfolio management for clients including worldwide trademark monitoring to identify conflicting applications and potential counterfeiting and infringement, identification of the potential financial impact and then prioritizing appropriate enforcement actions. She also evaluates new product packaging and counsels clients in connection with choice of protectable marks. She's handled numerous patent, trademark and copyright protection and litigation matters relating to lubricants, artwork, household products, pet foods, nutritional supplements, bicycle racing components, entertainers, software, defense, medical devices and fare collection systems to name a few.

Ms. Pasulka-Brown has handled numerous opposition cancellation proceedings before the United States Trademark Trial and Appeal Board. She has broad experience handling international trademark portfolios, infringement and counterfeiting matters.

Ms. Pasulka-Brown has also handled numerous patent, trademark and copyright litigation matters in a wide range of fields, including medical instruments, sports and exercise equipment, household products, computer software, clothing, furniture, photography, art and music.

She is registered to practice before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office and is admitted to the State Bar of California as well as many federal district and appellate courts.

Prior to joining Procopio, Ms. Pasulka-Brown was a partner at Brown, Martin, Haller & McClain.
