Professional Summary

Todd Neal is the leader of the firm's Litigation Team. Todd has substantial trial experience and has served as lead trial counsel in more than thirty jury trials tried to verdict. His diverse trial practice has three primary areas of focus: prosecution and defense of corporate and commercial litigation; representation of plaintiffs in serious injury and wrongful death matters; and defense of government investigations including actions brought by government agencies such as the SEC and industry regulatory agencies such as FINRA. In the past six years Todd has recovered more than $47,000,000 on behalf of plaintiffs and has been named a Best Lawyer in America in Personal Injury Litigation – Plaintiffs. Additionally, he has successfully defended and prosecuted numerous high value business disputes involving claims of breach of contract, fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, partnership, shareholder, corporate governance and securities matters.

Representative Matters

- 2019: Successfully defended real estate developer against allegations of fraudulent transfer and other claims seeking to set aside a $32 million real estate transaction. Despite filing four Complaints or Amended Complaints the plaintiff did not survive the pleading phase and the case was dismissed. The Court also awarded our client over $230,000 in attorneys' fees and costs.
- 2019: Prevailed on all claims in international arbitration conducted by AAA resulting in full recovery by our client for claims based on breach of joint venture agreement relating to gold mining operation in Nayarit, Mexico.

- 2018: Obtained settlement exceeding $8,000,000 in personal injury case.
- 2018: Obtained multi-million dollar confidential settlement in wrongful death case based on strict products liability claim.
- 2017: Represented LLC that was sued for $10 M after selling commercial building for $36 M. Claims included breach of contract and various fraud claims. Case resolved without our client paying any amount toward settlement.
- 2017: Obtained $6,000,000 settlement in wrongful death action on behalf of family of laborer killed in worksite accident.
- 2016: Prevailed on all claims after arbitration of dispute between members of limited liability company that owned and sold commercial office building in downtown San Diego. After a contested arbitration proceeding before the American Arbitration Association, Mr. Neal's clients were awarded 75% ownership and defeated co-members' claim of 50/50 ownership. Mr. Neal's clients also defeated claims of mismanagement and breach of fiduciary duty.
- 2016: Prevailed on motion to dismiss based on the doctrine of forum non conveniens on behalf of international women's shoe manufacturer against claims brought by joint venture partner who sought to bring claims in California alleging breach of contract and violation of intellectual property rights.
- 2016: Obtained multi-million dollar settlement on behalf of international vitamin manufacturer in Trade Libel action, further resulting in the removal of multiple URLs containing defamatory material from Google search results.
- 2015: Obtained $5,250,000 settlement in wrongful death action.
- 2015: Successfully defended a client sued for $12,000,000 for fraud, breach of fiduciary and breach of contract. After two weeks of trial, the case settled for 5% of the demand.
- 2014: Successfully defended Taiwanese electronic parts manufacturer against $30,000,000 fraud and kickback claim brought by national big box retailer. Mr. Neal's client paid nothing on the claims against it and recovered a multi-million dollar breach of contract settlement.
- 2014: Represented a director and member of the Audit Committee of a large publicly traded company specializing in the sale of walnuts. Obtained dismissal of securities fraud action under the Securities Exchange Act. Although SEC charges were filed against the company and certain individuals, Mr. Neal was successful in persuading the SEC not to charge his client.

- 2013: Obtained a $3,000,000 settlement for a manufacturer's representative working on behalf of a manufacturer providing OEM services to a well-known sporting goods brand. The suit was brought under the Independent Wholesale Sales Representatives Contractual Relations Act.
