

Asia-Pacific Cross-Border

Procopio's Asia-Pacific Cross-Border attorneys excel at helping clients succeed when doing business in the United States. We work with companies headquartered outside of the U.S. and their U.S. subsidiaries to address complex challenges in all matters of law. Procopio has for decades brought a detailed understanding and knowledge of Asian cultures to our work on behalf of international clients. We represent domestic and international corporations and unincorporated entities with complex cross-border transactions and multinational agreements. Our attorneys are fluent in languages including, but not limited to, Chinese, Japanese, and Korean. Our West Coast offices in San Diego and Silicon Valley allow our business days to overlap with key financial centers in the region, allowing us to engage in real-time, in coordination with our local partner firms. We also work closely with international accounting and other consulting firms to assist our clients in their worldwide business objectives.

Representative Matters

- Represented clients in the U.S. Federal District Court, the U.S. Patent Trial and Appeal Board (PTAB), and the U.S. International Trade Commission (USITC), including successfully representing a $5B Japanese producer of chemical products in a USITC Section 337 investigation

Testimonial

"Procopio's IP Litigation team is as good as it gets. In a patent infringement jury trial, they scored a complete victory for us – an outstanding damages award, plus a 10% royalty rate going forward. We could not have been happier with Procopio's IP Litigation team, and how they handled the case from start-to-finish, and their level of communication with us throughout the process."
