

Construction

Attorneys practicing Construction and Infrastructure Law at Procopio represent all segments of the construction industry including owners, developers, public entities, general contractors, subcontractors, sureties and financial institutions. We provide guidance to clients on the legal issues that arise at all stages of public and private construction projects. In addition to speaking engagements, our construction attorneys are active with the International Bar Association – International Construction Projects Committee, the American Bar Association (ABA) Forum on the Construction Industry, the Associated General Contractors of America and other construction-related organizations. We are also partners with Meritas and LawExchange International working with clients around the world.

We have one of the most experienced and successful infrastructure practices in the United States. Clients include large utility companies, public entities and water companies.

Our Services

Clients trust Procopio's construction law team to solve their most complex problems. We focus our deep legal and technical knowledge in the following practice areas:

- Bid protests
- Consulting during construction
- Construction contract formation and performance
- Contractual claims
- Environmental and Land Use issues
- Mechanic's lien and Stop Notice claims
- OSHA investigations and citations
- State and federal false claims act claims
- Surety bond claims

Representative matters

- Infrastructure. We have one of the most experienced and successful infrastructure practices in the United States, and our clients include public entities and large utility and water companies.

Current engagements include representation of a United States water authority in defense of 70M+ in contractor claims on an 18km tunneling and pipeline project, as well as prosecution of multiple construction claims on behalf of a major international contractor on multiple California highway paving projects. Completed work includes the resolution of disputes on wind farm construction and at nuclear power plants.

- Hotels, Hospitality and Leisure. Our construction law team has represented contractors, as well as owners and developers of large hospitality and housing projects, including hotels, senior living developments, high rise condominiums, casinos and shopping centers.

Testimonial

"We count on Procopio's construction industry knowledge and legal expertise to protect and support our growing business in operations throughout the United States. From legal issues that arise at all construction project stages, to employment and corporate law, Procopio is always there for us. We highly recommend Procopio as the go-to law firm in the construction industry."
