

Litigation, Intellectual Property

Our Intellectual Property (IP) Litigation team has a deep bench of litigation experience to assist clients when the potential for IP litigation arises. Led by some of the industry's most skilled IP litigation attorneys, our diverse team boasts decades of experience representing a wide range of companies from startups to Fortune 500 companies.

We handle disputes in federal, state and appellate courts throughout the United States and before the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO), and before arbitration forums that decide domain name disputes such as the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN). We also have experience with Abbreviated New Drug Applications (ANDA) cases.

We work in tandem with our exceptionally strong team of transactional Intellectual Property attorneys to achieve your desired result, including creatively and aggressively prosecuting and defending cases, addressing all aspects of a dispute, and dissecting complex issues for judges and juries.

Our IP practice team includes seasoned and award-winning patent, trademark, copyright, trade secret and licensing attorneys.

Testimonial

"Procopio's IP Litigation team is as good as it gets. In a patent infringement jury trial, they scored a complete victory for us – an outstanding damages award, plus a 10% royalty rate going forward. We could not have been happier with Procopio's IP Litigation team, and how they handled the case from start-to-finish, and their level of communication with us throughout the process."
