

NATIVE AMERICAN INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

GAIN REAL-WORLD EXPERIENCE AT SAN DIEGO'S LARGEST LAW FIRM

Procopio's Native American Law Practice Group offers 10-week paid internships for Native American law students or law students with an emphasis in Native American law.

Interns join a nationwide network of the next generation of Native American Law attorneys in an active alumni program consisting of judicial clerks, governmental attorneys and associates at law firms. Following the internship, we remain active with our alumni to mentor and prepare them for success in their career. Please join us!
